

The Public Diplomacy Council is a nonprofit organization committed to the academic study, professional practice, and responsible advocacy of public diplomacy. Founded in 1988, the Council serves the community of public diplomacy practitioners, professors, students, writers and others interested in public diplomacy. As the leading non-governmental voice for public diplomacy in the United States, we organize activities and advocate for greater understanding and support of the profession and its work.

Associate Membership in the Public Diplomacy Council has been created to allow the participation of current Foreign Service and Civil Service employees engaged in this crucial profession, who we hope will make the Council an informal “home.”

If you have a professional or personal interest in public diplomacy and would like to join our community, please complete the following form and send it along with $50 in dues to the Public Diplomacy Council, Bob Heath, Executive Director, 2401 Calvert St NW Suite 902, Washington DC 20008-2678.
