

Application: Full Membership

Council members manage, sustain, and take part in all the activities of the Council. New full members are nominated by any existing member and approved by the Board. We seek diversity in professional backgrounds, skills and employment history. Demonstrated accomplishment in government, academic, professional, and non-governmental organizations is highly valued. The Board takes into account sustained distinguished and specialized service, demonstrated interest in public diplomacy, and a willingness to contribute actively to the work of the Council. Residence in the Washington, DC area and U.S. citizenship are not criteria for membership.

The Board aims to draw at least 25 percent of the membership from professional backgrounds other than career service in the Department of State and the United States Information Agency.
