

Julie R. Moyes

Summary of Qualifications: Over a 32 year career in the Foreign Service I served in Public Diplomacy as well as in Consular, HR and Political. I served as the Principal Officer/Consul General in Edinburgh and as Acting DCM and Charge d’Affaires in The Hague. I have managed people, programs and resources both overseas in the Department of State in Washington.

Professional Experience

10/2016- Present - Involved in Community programs of the San Diego Diplomacy Council and UCSD Osher Lifelong Learning Institute and as a reading tutor in a local school.

07/2013- 10//2016: Coordinator of Cultural Affairs Training at the Foreign Service Institute.

I trained Foreign Service Officers and local employees in implementing cultural affairs and exchange programs overseas. I also conducted workshops abroad.

05/2012 to 07/2013 (concurrent with PAO assignment): Acting Deputy Chief of Mission.

I backstopped the Charge’ in all areas of Embassy management and served as Charge d’Affaires during his absence from post.

08/2010 to 07/2013: Counselor for Public Affairs U.S. Embassy The Hague

I was the advisor to the Charge’ on everything related to Public Affairs. I managed a Public Affairs Section of eight local employees and one American. I ensured that the work of the section reflects MSRP and Department priorities in areas such as Afghanistan, NATO, Women’s rights.

08/2007 to 08/2012: Branch Chief – ECA/PE/V/R/A (IVLP program for Africa).

Administered the International Visitor Program for Africa, supervised five civil service employees, and ensured that foreign policy priorities were reflected in our programming. I managed a budget of over $4 million.

08/2005 to 08/2007: Program Officer – New York Program Branch – IVLP

Planned, organized and implemented programming for International Visitors from around the world, partnering with contacts from every sector of New York business, culture, politics, environment, health sector etc.

06/2002 to 07/2005: Assistant Public Affairs Officer - U.S. Embassy The Hague

Served as Embassy Press Officer working closely with Dutch press on key foreign policy issues related to U.S. presence in Iraq and post 9/11 cooperation with the Dutch.

08/1999 – 08/2001: Visa Officer - Office of Security Advisory Opinions – Visa Office

Reviewed and adjudicated terrorism ineligibilities for Europe and negotiated inter-agency clearance on waivers for high profile cases such as that of Gerry Adams.

08/1997 to 08/1999: Career Development Officer – Department of State

I ran the Department's career mobility programs and was CDO for entry level specialists.

08/1995 to 08/1997: Principal Officer – Consulate General Edinburgh

As the sole U.S. official representative in Scotland, I managed the Consulate, did political reporting, public outreach, consular services to Americans etc. .