

Teresa Ball

Teresa Ball is a Press Officer in the Bureau of Consular Affairs at the Department of State. Prior to her current tour, she served as the Deputy Cultural Attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Santiago, Chile. While in Santiago, she managed English language programs, educational and professional exchanges, and cultural programming. Teresa has also served as a consular officer in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, and as Deputy Public Affairs Officer in Montevideo, Uruguay.

Prior to joining the Department of State, Teresa was a high school social studies teacher in the Gwinnet County Public School system in metropolitan Atlanta. She then went on to live in Tbilisi, Georgia for three years where she taught business communication at the Caucasus School of Business and worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

A native of East Tennessee, Teresa has a bachelor's degree in political science from Emory University and a master's degree in education from Georgia State University. She is married and has a four-year old daughter.