

Mojib Ziarmal Ghaznawi

- www.linkedin.com/in/m0jib • mojibghaznawi@hks.harvard.edu • +1 (703) 628-3325 •
- Polyglot: Arabic, Dari, Russian, Tajik, Spanish •

EDUCATION

Harvard University, The John F. Kennedy School of Government Cambridge, MA

Candidate, Master in Public Policy

Course Highlights Include:

- Art of Communications
- Crisis Communications
- Engaging the Media
- Data and Information Visualization

The George Washington University, Elliott School of International Affairs Washington, DC

Bachelor of Arts in International Affairs

Minor in Music Studies, jazz flute

EXPERIENCE

U.S. Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, Minority Staff Washington, DC

2019 Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Graduate Fellow 2019

- Assisted in the research for two Committee reports: the Nominations of Kelly Craft to be U.S. Representative to the United Nations and an ongoing review of President Trump's foreign policy
- Drafted the World Refugee Day Resolution (S.Res.254)
- Worked on topics including United Nations, refugees, nominations, and humanitarian assistance programs.

Reed Society for the Sacred Arts Washington, DC

Community Outreach Coordinator and Development Officer 2016 - 2019

- For this nonprofit that promotes and preserves sacred art forms, I managed and produced six concerts
- Created and managed a partnership with the Smithsonian Freer-Sackler on the Art of the Qur'an
- Developed a partnership with the Kennedy Center's Millennium Stage to host a concert

Heartbeat.FM Washington, DC

Operations Manager & Web Developer 2019

- Developed a new website for the program's relaunch in the United States, Israel, and Palestine
- Managed participant and alumni relations for conflict resolution research and participants recruiting
- Produced a new Heartbeat album and managed their U.S. tour

Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan Washington, DC

Assistant to the Cultural Attaché and Media Officer 2016 - 2017

- Supported the press team with international and domestic news coverage, including interviews, live translation, social media, and photography/videography
- Presented in place of the Cultural Attaché at four embassy events, the 2017 Nowruz Gala, Macy's Celebration of Global Fashion, Cultural Tourism DC's Embassy Chef Challenge, and Around the World Embassy Tour

DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (DCCA)

Washington, DC

Grants Support Specialist

2017

- Drafted the semi-annual National Endowment for the Arts grant application for DCCA's Poetry Out Loud competition
- Administrative support in outreach and scheduling grants panels, live performances, panel orientation, and rehearsals
- Technical support on grant application portal "GoodDoneGreat" with applications screening for coherence, completeness, and eligibility

Association Internationale des Étudiants en Sciences Économiques et Commerciales (AIESEC)

DC Consultant for Incoming Global Volunteer Exchanges (2016)

Washington, DC

Organizing Committee Vice President of Business Development for YouthSpeak Forum (2016)

Business Development Manager (2015)

- Launched and oversaw the first incoming volunteer exchange programs for AIESEC in the U.S.
- Directed market research in Washington DC for afterschool programming with public, private, and charter schools for incoming international, cross-cultural volunteer opportunities
- Trained a team of four interns on partnership development, cold calls, sales, marketing contract negotiation, and lead generation
- Master of Ceremonies and panel facilitator for the first YouthSpeak Forum in the U.S.

AIESEC International Volunteer Exchange

Gujarat, India

Tribal and Minority Rights in India

2016

- Taught English, hygiene, mathematics, and social entrepreneurship at an afterschool program in Dena Village, Vadodara
- Researched Hindu-Muslim unity, post-conflict reconstruction after the 2002 Gujarat Riots, and interviewed various religious leaders on interfaith harmony